

Labour Market Information Helpful Resources

Labour market information (LMI) can help you find what

- jobs are available now
- jobs have future potential
- skills you need to get the job

Ontario Job Futures

www.tcu.gov.on.ca/eng/labourmarket/ojf

Use this site to find job profiles and future outlooks.

To find an employment profile click on

- find an occupation
- type in a quick search or choose from the dropdown menu

Working in Canada

www.workingincanada.gc.ca

Use this site to find jobs, average wage, outlook and Essential Skills needed.

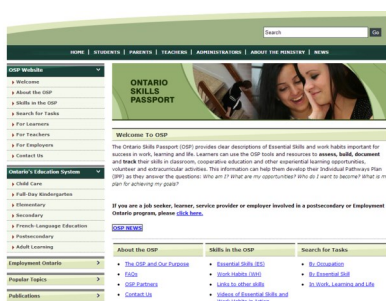

To find Essential Skills click on

- explore careers
- type in job title and location—search education and job requirements
- click on the Canada tab

Ontario Skills Passport

www.skills.edu.gov.on.ca/OSP2Web/EDU/Welcome.xhtml

Use this site to find tools to assess, build, document and track your skills.

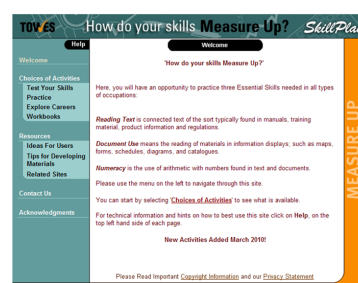

To find an employment profile look under

- search for tasks
- click on “By Occupation”

Measure Up

www.skillplan.ca/measure-up

Use this site to practice Reading Text, Document Use and Numeracy skills.

To practice your skills

- click practice
- select a skill type
- select a skill
- click “Practice this Skill”

For more resources from the Labour Market Project visit www.learningnetworks.ca