

Are you an apprentice or journeyperson?

We want to interview you!

We're the adult learning network in Hamilton. We're working with the McMaster Research Shop.

We want to know more about the apprenticeship journey. We're interviewing current apprentices and recent journeypersons. This will help us better understand how adult education programs can help apprentices succeed.

If you're interested, contact Leah or scan this code to connect with us.
